A call came in on Tuesday afternoon from a client from DJFS. He was having issues getting through on a phone number he had to use to report information for benefits. He was unable to get through and called the local office. The employee who answered the phone was not helpful and rude. Debbie McGrath returned a call to him to assist.

Sheriff Overmyer and Chief Hirt – Sheriff’s Office. They would like the Commissioners to take in to consideration adding a third detective on to the staff. With everything going especially in the drug issues in the county it would help to keep things progressing.

Commissioner Schwochow talked about vehicle purchasing for next year. We would like to split the fleet up for replacement. They are going to get us numbers on how they can split it up.

Discussion on an email from the Humane Society regarding the Sheriff assisting with a humane agent. Sheriff said he does have a deputy that was considering but this would have to be done on his own time.
